N his diary, Sir Walter Scott reveals that his best thoughts came to him during the shaving hour, just after he awoke. Even in his greatest prosperity, the famous author of "Marmion" always performed this homely task himself, considering it a "hardy and independent personal habit.

And this lovable, simple country gentleman used a razor which justly rewarded his skill—that old time model whose perfect balance makes it seem part of your own hand—a long, keen blade that can lie on your cheek at only one the right shaving angle. All that Scott's fine old razor needed to make it a perfect shaving tool was the double-edged, guarded detachable blade of the

A LRRADY—at the very moment you read this—a thousand particularly intelligent men and women are asking newedenlers for Hearst's for November. Minute by minute and hour by hour all over the United States this will continue series 500.

DOU of the most progressive magazine readers here secured their copies. The others, disappointed, will have to wall

-or be satisfied with a lower majarine.

YOU, pechaps, already here your November number. You have looked at the Table of Controls.— Indices, Masterlinch, Conan Doyle, G. R. Cheetton, Or master home: Judge B. H. Gare, head of U. S. Strait, on "Something More Than the Par Shvelope." Or B. C. Forbes, K. C. B. Wall Masser Dr. Frank Crane. Or you have maple, turned had to the Art. Play Book. Serance. of the Month Duesting is certain, you have notised the real authority of Hearst's—its aplendid serious side.

BUT you say you buy a magazine for its furton, food! Here in Hearst's for November are stories by Robert W. Chambers, Richard Washburn Child, Arther Somers Roshe, and Brunn Lawind, Arther Stringer, Edwin Balmer and Gouvernat Murvis, Basiles these for the English writers, P. R. Bailly, Darek Vann, E. Phillips Oupanhum as well as Maurine Level, the best of the mineral Prench writers. All these and several others in seclected sturing asteries fall will make you think!

IP you don't particularly core for a magazine that will make you think—I you are not interested in a magazine a bit beyond the ordinary you see I want Hearst a this month or any other. BUT, if you want the works of the world's great writers, if you want the works of the world's great writers, if you want the thoughts of the world's great thinkers, don't fail to make sure each mossit, starting today with Newember, of getting your regular copy of Hearst a.
